

SANGHARAKSHITA IN SEMINAR
QUESTION AND ANSWER SESSIONS
MEN'S ORDER CONVENTION 1985

CONTENTS

2-4	What is Vedanta? The vedas
4	What did vedanta absorb from Buddhism?
6	Comparing Buddhist and Hindu visualisation and mantra recitation Bodhisattvas are a manifestation of sunyata Sunyata is not an ontological principle Chastity - of body, speech and mind
6	The historical importance of chastity in Buddhism
7	The modern devaluation of friendship and overemphasis on sex Working towards a higher degree of chastity from wherever one is
10	The historicity of Sakyamuni, Gautama, the Buddha Why historicity is questioned
11	Healthy and unhealthy competition
12	The history of mantra chanting in the FWBO The Padmasambhava mantra
13	The Tara mantra
13	The possibility of structured training in visualisation
14	Meditation posture Meditation cushions
15	The Buddha's assenting by silence Bhante's not assenting by silence
16	Visualisation, especially of Vajrasattva, as a cure for serious illness?
16	Dharmachari Mahadhammavira - reflections on the dead Order member from India's happiness and goodwill
19	Suicide and Buddhism
21	Next Session Using English literature to possibly enhance one's experience of the Dharma
22	Music in Sufism and in Buddhism Using music in small quantities to contact positive emotions
23	Could the development of a musical tradition in the FWBO be encouraged?
24	"How does friendship relate with Stream Entry?"
24	The first fetter - habit - sakayadrsti
25	Doubt - vicikitsa 'Going through the motions' - silavrataparamarsa
25-26	Visualisation, especially of Vajrasattva, as a cure for serious illness? (the same question as the previous session with a similar, but slightly different, answer from Bhante)
26	Where is Devadatta at the moment and will he gain enlightenment?!
27	People finding their way back to the Dharma even if they have previously abandoned it
28	What to do with unwanted demons Maintaining one's awareness when travelling on the London Underground The use of personal stereo systems (Walkmans/men/people) and the ensuing

- possible alienation and 'schizophrenia'
- 29 The expressing of 'negativity'
Different types of people having different types of 'negativity' - those who self-perpetuate it and those who have a finite amount which can be exhausted
- 30 Bhante's contact with Dilgo Khyentse Rimpoche
- 31 The wearing of the blue shirt in India and elsewhere
Bhante's robes worn when conferring ordinations
- 33 "There is not a Sangha in the East at all"
The different nikayas and their Sanghakammas
- 34 How are beings reborn in the human realm and not the animal realm?
- 35 The Samadhinimita - first characteristic of concentration - the four satipatthanas
Things which are spoken or written generally but being appropriate to many individuals
- 36 Resolution of rifts in the Sangha/Order
- 38 The difficulties of asking potentially libellous questions!
- 39 Some other Buddhist groups not succeeding in communication Dharma
What is Western Buddhism?
Alcoholism in some Zen groups
- 40 Alcoholism, sexual promiscuity and authoritarianism in some traditional Buddhism groups
Buddhist teachers having bodyguards and the Buddha sending bodyguards away
- 40-42 Lama Govinda's Aryamaitreyamandala
Have other Buddhist groups failed to communicate the principles of Dharma effectively?
- 43 Bhante's own comments to the Order
Rifts in the Order
- 43-44 The need for deepening trust in the Order
- 44 Why there is the structure of Order/Chapter meetings, Order Weekends and Order conventions - to help realise the connection with the greater Order
- 44 The importance of writing to Shabda, the Order newsletter
- 45 Encouragement and advice for becoming good public speakers
Becoming effective writers